

LAKE SHORELINES

April 13, 2016

Holy Week

Holy Week is the church's great celebration of life in all its dimensions: communion with others in the Spirit, the call to suffer if necessary for the sake of the gospel, the sometimes loneliness of total commitment, and the glory of living in the Christ, whatever the cost.

It is a week to recall your own cost of living the Christian life and drawing strength for the journey from the one who has lived it before us and now fills us with his own eternal life.

— Joan Chittister

Be sure to bring flowers on Sunday for the Easter cross in front of the church; in case of rain, the cross will be inside the front door.

Children's Corner

Don't forget the Easter Walk is tonight at 6:00 pm! We'll gather in the back parking lot near the doors to begin! There will be childcare available for preschoolers.

We hope to see many of you at our Holy Week services this week - Maundy Thursday and Good Friday will both begin at 7pm and childcare will be available for preschoolers.

See the children's newsletter this week for more ideas on how your family can observe Holy Week even if you can't make it to each of our services.

Children's Center Receives Junior League Grant

On Monday night Brittany Ramirez, Assistant Director (above left) and Kathy Coleman, Director (above right) of Lake Shore Baptist Children's Center, were presented with a "check" for $3,999.00. They had applied for and received a grant to improve the infant playground that is used by both center and church children. The money will be used to purchase outdoor musical equipment and an awning to cover the infant playground. We are grateful for Junior League of Waco for their dedication to early childhood development and their generosity in this grant.

Prayers for . . .

Pat Lucas's sister, Kyreta Kemp of Waco, died on Saturday.

Visitation is from 5:00-7:00 tonight at Connally Compton Funeral Home. Her service is at 11:00 am Thursday at Beacon Hill Baptist Church, 1912 Monte Vista Street.

Sandy Londos' friend Lynn Scherf is in hospice care in Sarasota, Florida. Sandy and her sister, Carla, continue to care for Lynn through their faithful presence with her. Our prayers are with Lynn, Carla, and Sandy. May God's peace be with them all.

Laurie Tsuchiya, Sherry Castello's daughter, was in Scott & White in Temple last week where she had been admitted because of a stroke. Laurie is now in a local rehab center.

Curtis Streetman is doing much better and plans to be in church on Sunday morning the week after Easter.

JoLeen Eiklenborg's cousin died suddenly in Paris, France. Her twin sister is also having medical needs.

Carolyn Plaa had an MRI on Friday. She found out that she has a torn meniscus and a fractured tibial plateau. She will see an orthopedic surgeon on Tuesday.

Soup Supper Offering

We give thanks for a meaningful Sunday evening. Over a hundred preschoolers, children, youth, and adults gathered to pray for peace in solidarity with the people suffering from famine. More soup bowls are available if you would like to take some home this week and make a contribution to Action Against Hunger. Donations are still welcome. Make your check to Lake Shore and write "Soup Supper" in the subject line. Pictures and thank you's next week.
