Holy Week

Holy Week is the church's great celebration of life in all its dimensions: communion with others in the Spirit, the call to suffer if necessary for the sake of the gospel, the sometimes loneliness of total commitment, and the glory of living in the Christ, whatever the cost.

It is a week to recall your own cost of living the Christian life and drawing strength for the journey from the one who has lived it before us and now fills us with his own eternal life.

— Joan Chittister

Easter Walk - Tonight!

Children and families are particularly encouraged to join us for the Easter Walk tonight at 6:00 pm. If your family can only make it to one event during Holy Week, this opportunity for children to engage the Easter story in an interactive setting with actors and props is worth the time and effort to be here! We hope you'll come, and feel free to bring a friend! If it's not raining, we'll gather on the sidewalk outside the back doors; if it's raining we'll meet in the downstairs hallway.

Children & Holy Week

Families with children are not only welcome but encouraged to attend each of our Holy Week offerings. Coming to church so many nights in one week may be daunting, so just join us as you are able, knowing that as often as we gather during this holy week we are learning to walk in step together to the rhythm of this sacred and ancient story. See the Children's Newsletter for more info on each service and how it might appeal to children in different seasons and stages.

Prayers for . . .

Steve and Kathy Reid's four-year-old granddaughter, Rachel, had surgery in Los Angeles last week. The surgery went well, and she's now active and happy at home. Kathy was with them for the surgery.

Pat Stone is at M.D. Anderson today for surgery. She is having her 3rd atypical meningioma, benign, removed from her brain today. Our prayers are with Pat and Nathan.

Christiana Owusu's sister, Adwoa, died in Accra, Ghana, early Palm Sunday morning. Christiana had just talked with her the day before, and she seemed to be doing better after recent health problems. Adwoa was responsible for the cooking at Shalom Children's Center.

Rick Battistoni's father died in Las Vegas, Nevada, on Saturday morning. He was 92. Rick was able to be with him most of the last three weeks and all of the last ten days of his life. Our friends, Rick and Betsy, part of Lake Shore's extended family, now live in Lincoln, Rhode Island.

Brittany and Casey Ramirez had their first experience with a Chinese hospital on Palm Sunday afternoon when Juniper needed to go to the doctor. Brittany said, "It was a hard day; just the realization that even a minor thing is hard to deal with in a foreign language/country."

Continue to shower Gail Kamm with cards for Easter. Her daughter, Carolyn, says the generous mail for Gail has been "awesome." Send them to 3500 Country Vista Drive, Burleson, TX 76128.

Food Needed for Youth Spring Retreat!

We are looking for volunteers to make food for teenagers participating in Spring Retreat Friday, April 6, through Sunday, April 8. Our retreat will be in Waco, and students will be staying in church members' homes. We don't want to put the full burden of feeding a dozen teenagers on the host families! If you are able to make or purchase food for our students, please email Zach@lsbcwaco.org.
