August 22, 2018

Summer Sabbath

For Isabelle (second on left), Sabbath is getting to spend time with cousins (we usually see them no more than once a year). This is her with four of her female cousins on my side in Massachusetts.

Wednesday Night Suppers

begin tonight, August 22,
serving 5:15-5:45 p.m.

$6 adults; $3 children; $15 family

Please note that choir will begin right after dinner tonight.

Wednesday night suppers are a signature Lake Shore tradition where all ages eat together each week. Then, around the tables, we celebrate the good news of the church family and lift up to God the names of those in need of prayer. We hope you will join us this each Wednesday night from now until next May.

Please cancel any meal you cannot come to. Each meal that is not cancelled costs the church $6. (Often we have 12 or more reservations that are not cancelled.)

The Context of Our City
for Our Service
Wednesdays, August 29-September 26

On the five Wednesday nights leading up to our September 29 missions morning, we will hear from five individuals who serve the city of Waco every day by addressing our community's needs through their particular areas of expertise:

- healthcare
- housing
- immigration
- hunger relief
- education

They will help us better understand the city in which we live and to recognize the needs within "Three feet or so." Our guest for August 29 is Kelly Craine, Public Health Information Specialist, Waco-McLennan County Public Health District.

Singer/songwriter Carrie Newcomer wrote: “I can’t change the whole world, but I can change the world I know, what’s within three feet or so.”

2018-2019 Sunday School

This Sunday we honored and commissioned all of our Lake Shore members who will be teaching in Lake Shore spiritual formation programming during the 2018-2019 school year, both on Sundays and Wednesdays. We are so grateful for these people who give not just time and energy but mind, heart, spirit, and much patience to the task of teaching and learning alongside us throughout the year - and particularly I want to thank those who do this with children.

Special thanks to the following folks - your faithful presence in our children's lives is so appreciated!

Celebrations

Vicki and Bruce Kabat's third grandson, Sebastian, was born early on the morning of August 17. He is Jeff and Kelly's third son. He joins brothers Easton, 6, and Hayes, 2.

Ellen and Brent Brown's three granddaughters — Liza, Elli, and Sylvi — were dedicated on Sunday at their church in College Stations. The triplets were born September 18, 2017, to Stacey and Eric Brown. Their big sister and brother are Lili and Luke.

Jon Singletary, Dean of the Diana R. Garland School of Social Work, wrote Monday: "Friends, many of you know Dr. Preston and Dr. Genie Dyer; many of you had them for class, worked for them, or have benefitted from their love and care. Preston began social work education at Baylor 50 years ago and still teaches for us! This year, we are establishing an endowed scholarship in their honor and we need your help. This is the week leading up to giving day and we need your support. Even the smallest gifts add up to help us reach our goal of $25,000. Please click this link and show your support for the Diana R. Garland School of Social Work, the legacy of Preston and Genie Dyer, and our students for years to come. Thank you!"

Prayers for . . .

Sandy Londos's friends Anita and Bob Vaughan of Ann Arbor, Michigan, who are grieving the loss of their 24-year-old son, Tommy, who died on Saturday.

Brittany and Casey Ramirez, who were in Bali for the regional gathering of CBF field personnel when they woke up on Sunday morning to the aftershock of a 6.9 magnitude earthquake. They are OK, "just a little shaken up." They ask us to "please be in prayer for those on Lombok Island who have been experiencing these large earthquakes for over three weeks now."

Rick Allen wants to invite Lake Shore people to participate in the American Association for Suicide Prevention Walk Out of Darkness at 5:30 on September 29 in memory of Nick Blanchard and other family and friends they have lost to suicide.

Committee Corner

Well folks, after last week's report on Stewardship, I thought I would switch gears to a committee that is a little--no, a lot--more upbeat. The Children's Education Committee is a group that works with the Pastoral Staff to plan the educational activities for the preschoolers and children of the church. There are many different aspects to this planning but some of the activities included are Sunday School, Faithful Friends, Bike-a-thon, Wednesday night missions, and many more.

At present Jennifer Bronson Warren and Jenna Swanson are the co-chairs. If you think you might like to be a part of this group, I encourage you to speak to one of them, and then plan to sign up for the committee when the sign-up sheets go up soon.
