

LAKE SHORELINES

September 26, 2018

Christ has no body now on earth but yours,
no hands but yours, no feet but yours.
Yours are the eyes through which Christ's compassion is to look out to the world.
Yours are the feet with which Christ is to go about doing good.
Yours are the hands with which Christ is to bless all people now.

8:00 breakfast: (taco bar) at Lake Shore

8:30 worship at Lake Shore

8:45 teams move into the city to work with Talitha Koum, Gospel Café, Salvation Army, Habitat for Humanity,
The Cove, World Hunger Relief Farm, Meals on Wheels,
Family Abuse Center, Lake Shore Baptist children's Center, and WISD

The gift of the work of your hands at any of these places will help get projects done that they don't have time to do in their regular hours. A team of helpful folks is a real bonus to them.

Sign up to be on one of the teams in the hall or in the office.

We have some inside, seated jobs for W.I.S.D. and Meals on Wheels.

(Contact Sharlande if you're interested.)

This invocation was offered by Nate Myrick on Sunday, September 9, 2018.

Good morning, God.
Thank you for your presence.
May we return the favor.
May we return the favor so that we can hear you.
So that we can hear you in the voice of our neighbors.
We ask that you would disrupt us.
Unsettle us.
Will you comfort us in this unsettling disruption because you know we need it?
For those of us who mourn,
who grieve,
who ache,
disrupt the normalcy of our pain.
For those of us whose hearts have become hard in our comfort and privilege, disrupt the normalcy of our easy power.
Remind us again of your generous and terrifying love.
For us.
For others.
For all.
Amen

Fiber Art Group October 13, 10:00 a.m.

Seven were at our last meeting. Several more have expressed an interest. Several brought projects and worked while we talked. Ideas were flowing. We discussed, learning to crochet, hand quilting, knitting, even the possibility of setting up a sewing corner with machines and appropriate equipment in the Art Room. Please come join us the second Saturday of each month. We can learn new skills, work on existing projects, and, most importantly, enjoy good company.
For information, contact Patty Field.

Committee Corner

While it can be said that each of our committees serves an important role in the functioning of the church, it is also true that the Personnel Committee has one of the very most important duties. This is because it deals with our most important assets--the pastoral ministers and staff of the church. This vital group deals with the normal day to day personnel matters, but also is responsible for overseeing staff evaluations, pay and benefit requests, PTO policies, and the occasional need to fill a staff position. Even if you don't have actual "management" experience, you care for the church and her people, so you can help with the decision-making role of the Personnel Committee.

Children's Center Reading Time

“Great beginnings are forever!” Join us as we continue to celebrate the 50th Anniversary of our Children's Center.

Volunteer to read to preschoolers this fall. You may choose to read to one of 7 classes of children, ranging in age from 6 weeks-5 years. Teachers will be in the room to help things run smoothly. If you have a favorite children's book to share, please bring it. Wonderful children's books are available in the church library, and a basket of books will be available in the Children's Center Office. This is a fun way for us to celebrate and support the Children's Center.

Thank you for volunteering during September through December! You can sign up here, or contact Katy Abel for more information. All times will be 9:30-10:00 October 23, November 29, December 12.

Ian Johnson, author of The Souls of China: The Return of Religion After Mao Wednesday, October 3, 3:30 p.m. Mars McLean Science Building 101

Pulitzer Prize-winning journalist Ian Johnson has spent nearly twenty years in China, reporting and writing on the country's society, religion, and history. His most recent book, The Souls of China: The Return of Religion After Mao, is a critically acclaimed and engrossing look at the resurgence of diverse faith practices in China after years of religious persecution. In his talk, Johnson will speak about this remarkable explosion of faith and the uncertainties over how to lead a moral life in contemporary China. With our friends Brittany and Casey living in China, we hope you will attend Ian Johnson's lecture to learn more about their context for ministry.

Pooling Our (Theological) Resources

Our next Company of Parents gathering will be October 19th and on that date we'll be sharing with each other about rituals and resources we've found useful in exploring faith at home with our kids. That's still a few weeks away so in the meantime, if you have something you've found useful in helping your family keep the faith conversations going at home - a book, a blog, a family spiritual practice, a podcast, a game - and would like to share it with the group, go ahead and email Claire to let her know so she can start keeping a running list and hopefully bring some examples of those resources to share!
