Thanksgiving Service

Sunday, November 18, 6:00 pm

We will offer our gratitude to God
with a service of hymns, scripture and communion.

*Thou that has given so much to me,
give one thing more—a grateful heart;
not thankful when it pleases me,
as if Thy blessings had spare days;
but such a heart, whose pulse may be Thy praise.*
—George Herbert

Thanksgiving
Service

We need members to bring pies of any sort. Not everybody needs to bring one, but we hope that we can have a good variety. It would help the Fellowship Committee if those bringing pies could slice them first at home. Please make the slices fairly small, so that people can help themselves to several pieces of pie from different people. Also, please bring a pie server that is tagged with your name.

2018 BU STEPPIN' OUT Project
Newsletter 11/7/18

This Saturday, Nov. 10, 2018, LSBC will be hosting Baylor's Steppin' Out program beginning at 9:00 a.m. and ending at 1:00 p.m. Thanks to Lunch volunteers Ellen Brown, Patty Field and David Mosley, and Supervisor volunteer Naomi Fox for stepping up for Saturday. We are still looking for 10 people willing to assist one of the 10 BU groups. Our supervisor volunteers would oversee 10-12 BU students working one or two tasks assigned. We have both inside and outside projects to complete Saturday morning.

What a wonderful opportunity to express our LSBC mission to our Baylor students and our community. If you are interested in being a Supervisor, Lunch Volunteers and/or would like more information; please call or email JoLeen Eiklenborg at (254) 717-4279, (joeiklenborg@hotmail.com).

Children's Corner

As I suspected, the time has flown and we have already arrived at the week of "lasts" - last Children's Corner, last Wednesday night, last Sunday coming up this weekend. It has been such a privilege to serve in this role and I would be remiss if I didn't take this opportunity to thank the Children's Education Committee (past and present!) for their work alongside me in the last few years. Jenna Swanson and Jennifer Bronson Warren are co-chairing that committee right now and are already hard at work helping to make this as smooth a smooth transition as possible. They could both use an encouraging word or a hug whenever you see them - and since I won't be here to give them I'll need all of you to do that for me!

On a calendaring note: I've made the difficult decision to call off our last Friday night Parents Night Out event this weekend due to a combination of lack of RSVPs and, more personally, just the need for a calm night at home in a turbulent week. I will look forward to seeing and hugging as many of you (and your children!) as possible on Sunday and in the coming days before we move.

Thank you so much for all of your love and support in this season.

Youth Tell Stories about Their Fall Retreat . . . and More! Wednesday night November 14, 6:15 p.m.

The Lake Shore Youth invite you to a seminar on November 14th where they will share their experiences learning about community, faith, themselves, and the stories that bind those together. In addition to talking about the chance that some had to travel with Zach Helton on his final Fall Retreat to San Antonio, they will give voice to some of the core interactions that they value in their time with Lake Shore Youth so far and share their hopes for the future.

Welcome, Joy and Roger Poehls

We are delighted to welcome Joy and Roger to our community. A lot of Lake Shore folks first met them at a first Sunday lunch at Fuddruckers a few months ago.

Both Joy and Roger grew up in the Waco area, Joy near Hewitt and Roger in Connally. He went to Texas A&M where he graduated with a Bachelor of Science in Building Construction and worked building homes and commercial buildings, then in remodeling as Home Plus Safety Showers. Joy graduated from the University of Texas with a degree in Prayers for . . .

The family of Flo Wise, who died on Friday afternoon at The Delaney where she had lived for about two months. Her memorial service will be Sunday, November 18, at 3:00 p.m. at DaySpring Baptist Church. Flo served for many, many years as our church librarian and as one of the cooks for Wednesday night supper.

Dorothy Clark, Magi Davis's mother, suffered a stroke last Sunday morning, October 28, at Sodalis. She has moved from Providence to St. Catherine's for rehab.

Van Jones' cousin Phil died on Friday morning. He had been in hospice care the last couple of weeks. Van says Phil was like a brother to him. Van and Ibbey had a good visit with him in Austin last Wednesday.

Trinette Jones asks for prayers for their family.

Many friends of Kurt and Pat Kaiser, their church, people around Waco and around the world have been holding Kurt in their prayers as he has faced increasingly complex, serious health challenges since late this summer. After being in the hospital several times during the last few weeks, Kurt returned home on Sunday afternoon. He is resting peacefully, under the care of Pat, his family, and hospice.

Nathan Stone has been diagnosed with early, level 1 bladder cancer and will begin treatment in a few weeks. Visits are not needed but other forms of encouragement are welcome.

Stewardship

As many of us are already looking forward to the end of another calendar year, with all the holidays and festivities, I would like to give a brief reminder that this time of the Church year includes our annual Stewardship drive. This year the theme will center around "Give until you smile!" When we give to our church we are offering our time, talents, AND finances. While each is important we must remind ourselves of the need to commit our finances to support the various missions, programs, and staff of our church. Thank you for your support.

Don SoRelle--Chair of Stewardship secondary education. She taught school for 26 years, the last 21 at Robinson ISD in sixth grade social studies. In 2015 Joy retired, and she and Roger started a business in 2017 cleaning homes and doing minor repairs for homeowners.

Joy and Roger have four adult children and two grandchildren. They have been searching for a church where people had similar values and a similar view of our world today. Joy says, "We have felt very welcomed and loved at Lake Shore." Roger says, "Lake Shore closely aligns with our values that everyone should be included."

Ready to fully connect with the community, the Poehls have been attending the Bereshith Sunday School class; they are on the Wednesday night supper list and the list for lunch this Sunday; and they have even signed up to serve on committees! Welcome the Poehls to Lake Shore. No doubt they will soon welcome others!

Joy and Roger will be in Care Group 7.—Allen, Burlison, Herbert
