Palm Sunday

We continue our journey to the cross by waving our palm branches as we remember Jesus' entry into Jerusalem, a tradition that churches around the world will re-enact Sunday. From the parade of palms, we move to the Passion of the Christ.

Maundy Thursday

We will gather at 6:30 p.m. to remember the Last Supper. Maundy Thursday takes its name from the Latin Dies Mandati, the day of commandment, Jesus' commandment that the disciples love one another. In music, scripture, readings, and sharing of the bread and cup, we will remember and give thanks.

Good Friday

Through hymns, silence, and confession, we will commemorate the death of Jesus. This 6:30 p.m. service of darkness echoes the ancient tradition of Tenebrae, the extinguishing of candles as the passion story is read. Easter happens most fully for those who have taken seriously the suffering of God.

Palm Sunday Soup Supper

a Holy Week meal and a time of prayer for our Central American sisters and brothers seeking refuge and asylum

“So then you are no longer strangers and aliens, but you are citizens with the saints and also members of the household of God.” —Ephesians 2:11-22

John Garland, pastor of San Antonio Mennonite Church, in the heart of San Antonio, will be with us at the Soup Supper to tell stories of the religious experiences of refugees who have stayed at his church where the sanctuary and other areas are transformed into “rooms in the inn” whenever they are needed.

“For the past three years, Garland has provided aid and comfort in Jesus’ name to asylum seekers eking through the U.S. immigration system.” Because of its location in downtown San Antonio, not far from the bus terminal, Garland’s congregation offers respite care to thousands of immigrants, mostly Latin Americans, who have fled north to save their children. Typically, they are detained when they cross the Rio Grande, seeking asylum. After being separated from family for weeks, they are reunited, manacled with GPS devices around their ankles, then released to join sponsors somewhere in the United States. (based on a story by Marv Knox in The Baptist Standard)

Volunteers working through the Interfaith Welcome Coalition, which includes the ministry of La Casa de Maria y Marta, advocate for reform and compassion at all government levels. All day every day volunteers are at the bus station and at the airport to welcome mothers and children coming out of detention. They give each woman and child a backpack filled with helpful supplies for the journey. They help explain the complicated journeys and help to calm fears. A trauma-informed overnight shelter, La Casa de Maria y Marta at San Antonio Mennonite Church, is provided for families whose travel is interrupted for any reason.

Easter Hydrangeas

Every Easter, you have the chance to give flowers in honor or memory of someone you love. We will adorn the front of the sanctuary with hydrangeas in celebration of the joy of the resurrection of Christ and the renewal of the earth. After worship on Easter morning, you may take the hydrangea home to plant. Submit your order form and payment of $15 for each hydrangea by Tuesday, April 16.

I wish to give a hydrangea on Easter morning:
