From The St. John's Gospel, Acts 13:47

TJ Geiger, Guest Preacher

TJ is a familiar and beloved presence at Lake Shore. He officially joined our church on the anniversary of the first Sunday he visited in 2016.

He moved to Waco in July 2016 to start a job as an assistant professor of English at Baylor University where he teaches classes in professional writing and rhetoric. He is a native Texan.

TJ is a relatively "young"

Christian, whose began his life of discipleship in the Episcopal Church. He served on the Episcopal Peace Fellowship and in experiential learning and advocacy programs for young adults. He says, "I'm still discerning how I can be of service to God and neighbor in this new church home. I hope to be—if nothing else—a loving presence in this place that loves the world God has made."

This summer TJ will finish a manuscript for an academic book titled "Revising Proverbs of Ashes," which is about the rhetorical practices prominent Evangelical women are using to change the conversation around sexual and domestic violence.

Unpacking Privilege

May 15: Why All the Fuss About Privilege? Mansplaining, Cultural Humility, and Choosing What's Right Over What's Easy Dr. Rod Hetzel

For our final seminar in the four-part series Unpacking Privilege, we will be joined by Dr. Rod Hetzel who will share with us what he has learned about navigating the world with sensitivity as a white, straight, cisgender, male. He is also available to answering your questions, especially those "questions you wanted to ask but were afraid to ask." If you have a question pertaining to privilege that you would like Rod to address, please submit it in advance to kyndall@lsbcwaco.org, subject line, "Question for Rod."

THE SAINT JOHN'S BIBLE

Wednesday, May 22 — 6:15 p.m. Presenter — Beth Farwell,
Director of Central Libraries, Special Collections, Baylor

Baylor University is proud to be home to one of a very limited number of St. John's Bible Heritage Editions. According to a Baylor news release, "The first reaction most people have upon viewing the Bible Heritage Edition is a sharp intake of breath or an audible gasp. The play of light on the illuminated pages, the obvious skill of the calligraphy, and the stunning nature of its illustrations all work together to create a visceral response to its inherent beauty." Beth will bring three of the volumes to show us next week.

The seven-volume edition includes 160 major illuminations and hundreds of additional illustrations that weave together the Biblical narrative in an awe-inspiring, visually-stunning manner. It is made to the exacting standards by the creator of the original St. John's Bible, illuminator and calligrapher Donald Jackson. The Welsh-based artist and official calligrapher to the Queen, partnered with the monks of St. John's Abbey to create the first handmade, fully-illuminated version of the Bible made on vellum since the creation of the printing press more than 500 years ago. The original St. John's Bible exists only as unbound sheets of vellum; the Baylor set is seven bound volumes measuring 2 feet by 3 feet each. More than eleven years went into the creation of the original.

Children's Corner

Camp, Camp, Camp

It's almost starting to feel like summer, and with the higher temps comes all sorts of fun summertime activities.

If your 3rd-6th grader is planning on attending Passport with us July 31- Aug 3 the time is now to pay your camper fee of $175. All fees are due May 22, which is only 15 days away! If you need a full or partial scholarship, please contact Krysta in the church office.

We'll also need to have a meeting to sign forms and get the heads up on what all is going on at camp this year, so be looking for more information on that shortly.

Meals on Wheels just learned that we will no longer be able to obtain pet food for our clients from our primary donor. This could spell the end to our pet food program because we have received approximately 1,400 lbs of food per month from them over the past 5 years. Please help us sustain our pet food program. At the moment we are in dire need of dog food. We have one more week's supply of dog food on-hand and about 3 week's supply of cat food. Help us feed our homebound seniors' furry companions. You can drop off your donations at 501 West Waco Drive. If you would like more info on how you can help our pet food program, please call 254-752-0316 or email rachel@mowwaco.org. Thank you!

Prayers for . . .

Joan Parsons, a beloved charter member of Lake Shore, who moved to Tennessee to be near her children Jack and Cathy Parsons this time last year, died last Wednesday morning, May 8. Her service will be at Lake Shore on Saturday, May 25, at 3:30 p.m.

Nathan Stone is doing well, enjoying all his usual activities and having no negative side effects as he continues with a maintenance treatment for bladder cancer with day trips only to MD Anderson. The treatment plan consists of 3 treatments at MDA, one per week, with breaks of 3-6 months in between each set of 3. He is grateful for the love and concern of his Lake Shore Family.

Marian Funderburk who had breast cancer surgery a few weeks ago. She will begin chemotherapy treatments on Thursday, May 16.

Kyndall Rothaus, who is on leave. We hold her in our prayers.

Helen Hastings, who fell at her home Sunday night and broke her clavicle, at the end of a happy Mother's Day trip to Georgetown with her Waco family to meet her Austin family for lunch. The ER doctors determined she did not need surgery. She was admitted to Hillcrest in the wee hours of Monday morning. She is scheduled to move to St. Catherine's for rehab on Wednesday morning for rehab.

Susan Johnson and Don Koester, along with their children, who will travel to Connecticut this week for Susan's mother's memorial service on Saturday. As you may remember, Susan's mother passed away in January. They are holding the memorial service now, so more family will be able to attend.

Joleen and Missy, as they fly out tomorrow to Grand Junction, CO for the service of Bill Love, Missy's brother-in-law. They will return May 19.

Remembering Joan Parsons

Joan Parson, 90, beloved child of God and faithful member of the Lake Shore family, died last Wednesday morning at her assisted living center in Spring Hill, Tennessee. She had moved there about this time last year to be close to family.

Joan and her husband, Jim, were members of Lake Shore from its beginnings in 1959. Their three sons -- Gregg, Jack, and Joe -- grew up in the neighborhood. Joan's fingerprints are also on generations of Lake Shore children and their parents. She welcomed three, four, and five-year old's to church each Sunday morning with special snacks, Bible stories, and especially her kind and loving presence. Everyone had another grandmother in Mrs. Parsons.

If you ate Wednesday night supper here any time between the late 1980s and 2010, Joan helped prepare your meal. If you were a child who would rather have a peanut butter and jelly sandwich than a casserole and salad, Mrs. Parsons helped make your sandwich. Her "Monday lunch bunch," made the rounds of every new restaurant in Waco. Many of you remember what a great team Joan and Jan Williams were as they delivered meals for years in East Waco. And if you were lucky enough to go on one of six mission trips to God's Love We Deliver in New York, you remember what joy Joan took in preparing and delivering meals to Brooklyn & the Bronx.

At her memorial service here at the church she loved so much. Together we will remember the quiet, steady presence of Joan Parsons, faithful friend to all. She made an immeasurable difference in our lives.

With gratitude to God for the gift of Joan Parsons,

Sharlande
