Jeremy Everett, Preaching This Sunday

Jeremy Everett is the founder and executive director of the Texas Hunger Initiative (THI), a capacity-building, anti-hunger project within Baylor University. THI partners with federal and state agencies, and numerous faith - and community-based organizations to develop and implement strategies to alleviate hunger through research, policy analysis, education, and community organizing. On Monday Baylor announced the launch of the Baylor Collaborative on Hunger and Poverty. The Collaborative will encompass the Texas Hunger Initiative and include the same team led by Everett to implement hunger programs in Texas and beyond and to conduct hunger and poverty research from the local to the global perspective.

Through THI's regional offices, staff members and researchers have assisted local community efforts increasing hundreds of millions of additional meals to Texans since 2009. Prior to THI, Jeremy worked for international and community development organizations as a teacher, religious leader, community organizer, and organic farmer. He frequently delivers presentations to churches, non-profit organizations, universities, and the government sector about hunger and poverty.

Jeremy earned a bachelor's degree from Samford University and a Master of Divinity from Baylor University. Jeremy is a Next Generation Fellow of the University of Texas LBJ School's Strauss Center for International Security and Law, a Senior Fellow with World Hunger Relief, Inc., and was appointed by U.S. Congress to serve on the National Commission on Hunger.

Jeremy is the author of I Was Hungry: Cultivating Common Ground to End an American Crisis, a contributing author in Food and Poverty: Food Insecurity and Food Sovereignty Among America's Poor (Vanderbilt University Press) and The End of Hunger: How Science, Religion, and Politics Can Work Together to Make Possible (InterVarsity Press).

Jeremy is married to Amy Miley Everett. They have three sons: Lucas, Sam, and Wyatt.

"Finding God in the Faith of Others"

October 9, 16

Bob Baird is teaching this 4-week
Wednesday evening seminar that will explore such questions as: Is God revealed in all the great world religions? What can Christianity learn from other religions? What can other religions learn from Christianity? How similar are the great world religions? How different?

The discussion sessions are guided by the insights of Barbara Brown Taylor in her recent book, Holy Envy. It is not necessary to have read the book in order to participate.
Anyone interested in the interaction of Christianity and other world religions is invited.

Family Corner

During the "Discover Lake Shore" lunch this past Sunday, Megan said, "Tithing is more than just donating money. Tithing is also donating time. We are in big need of volunteers for teaching youth Sunday School and working the nursery. We are blessed with new families visiting and joining. We also need to make sure we provide the care they need.

Please reach out and let Megan know if you can tithe some of your time.

Parents of youth, if you have not signed up to deliver a meal, please do so. If we want to continue eating together then we need help from you.

Casey, Brittany, Juniper, and Finnley Ramirez will be here at Lake Shore October 23 to talk about their home in China. Above, they are pictured at Casey's parents' home in Duncanville. Finnley will be almost five weeks old. Come to the seminar at 6:15 that night to meet Finnley and to hear about China.

Each year the Waco Pride Network hosts the Out on Brazos festival to celebrate the LGBTQ community and its allies in the Greater Waco area.

This year the event is Oct. 12 at Brazos Park East. Gates open at 11am. The event will end around 5pm. Come check out Lake Shore's booth!

Celebrations...

We are so grateful for Georgia Brady, Pat Farrell, and Angela Whorton who are helping Joan fix Wednesday night supper tonight while Victoria is out.

Prayer Concerns...

David Hendon's oldest sister, Jean Carson, has very serious problems with COPD and congestive heart failure. She lives in Georgia.

Terri Jo Mosley's latest MRI shows that she has a broken leg; the break is very close to the break that she had in a car accident months ago. She's probably looking at surgery; meanwhile she needs to continue to work.

Cindy Oates' father had open heart surgery in San Angelo on Monday. Cindy is the director of Lake Shore Baptist Children's Center.

Missy Davis is slowly progressing. Please keep JoLeen and Missy in your prayers day by day.

Jeff Davies will have back surgery next Wednesday, October 9. Conway, Melanie, and Becca Briscoe

Robin and Doug McDurham

Sherry Castello and her daughter, Laurie. Laurie is in hospice care

Kelly Hill's father-in-law, Dean Morrison, (Kelly is Beverly and Dennis Hill's daughter) was air-lifted to a Plano hospital this week as a result of a closed head injury. Prayers for the family as they wait for the next plan.

Virginia Reichenbach, a member of The Delaney Sunday school class, was admitted to St. Catherine's for heart issues and rehab.

Ashley Thornton's step-father, Weylon McDonald, died in Baytown last week. His service will be tomorrow.

hosted by Working Films and Waco Immigrants Alliance

Tuesday, October 22, at Waco Hippodrome

At a moment when the rights of immigrants are being attacked, a fuller story of immigration needs to be told to address the harms perpetuated by immigration enforcement practices and policies that extend beyond the crisis at the border. Whether it's through raids, people being picked up at courthouses, or being forced to live in churches, families are being separated and attacked across America.

You're invited to Stories Beyond Borders, five short films that show a more complete picture of the attacks on immigrant families and communities. Beyond building empathy, these films lift up real stories of resilience and strength, while illustrating some of the ways people can give their time, energy, and resources to support organizing led by immigrant communities.

Join us for this screening & discussion to learn more and find out how you can stand up against these attacks. This event is hosted Waco Immigrants Alliance and Working Films.
