Brett is now pastor of Plymouth Congregational Church in Brooklyn, New York. Some of you have heard about a recent column by our former pastor, Brett Younger, that has attracted a lot of attention. To reserve meals for children, include in your email the names and ages of children and youth who will eat each week.

Dorothy Lynn, a member of Lake Shore from its early years until 2009, died in Atlanta, Georgia, in June. Her memorial service will be here on Saturday, August 19, at 11:00 a.m. If you would like to help with the reception, usher, or sing in the choir, please contact Sharlande@lsbcwaco.org.

Community through Caring (CTC) Groups

Upon joining Lake Shore, each individual or family at Lake Shore becomes a member of one of our Communities through Caring (CTC) groups. These groups expand the purpose of the Care Groups by making sure members get to know each other, not only by caring for each other in times of illness or loss but also by practicing habits of connection and friendship between church members who might not know each other in another way. The leaders' goals are to lead the group in:

- creating ways to build community with each other
- caring for each other in times of need and in times of celebrating good news together
- communicating needs with each other, the staff and with the church at large

Currently we have eight groups, seven with three leaders/one with four. Half of the leaders are new this year and each group has 7-8 new members, with 17-18 members and family units per group.

The group leaders are committed to their roles in leading the church in caring and community. Your group leaders will contact you and the members of your CTC group within the next few weeks. sz

Celebrations . . .

Lesley and Nate Myrick are the new parents of Hasley Mae, 8lbs 13oz, 21.5" long, born August 12, 2017 at 10:56am. Big brother Ford welcomes her home. Nate also passed his preliminary exams! Celebrations for all the Myricks!

Prayers for . . .

Lydia Kari, Henry Kari's mother, died on Sunday morning, August 6, in Cameroon. Friends and family gathered for a wake at Henry and Gwen's home on Friday night. Henry left for Cameroon on Sunday so he can be present at his mother's service on Saturday, August 19. On Sunday the church in Nsam will have a service of gratitude to celebrate her life. Our prayers and love are with Henry, Gwen, Lawyah, Lum, and Fabuin and with Henry's brothers and sisters — Emilia, Celine, Elias, and Francis. Lydia's husband and two of her daughters — Regina and Agnes — preceded her in death. Henry Kari's cousins from Cameroon, Emmanuel, died on Friday, August 11, at M. D. Anderson where he was in treatment for pancreatic cancer.

Vicki Hunt needs your prayers this week.

Ana Dennis is a teacher in our Children's Center and a childcare worker for the church on Sundays and Wednesdays. Ana's mother-in-law is in hospice care. Ana and her family appreciate your prayers.

A service for Amy Spinella is scheduled for Saturday, August 26 at 11am at Lake Shore. Here is a website that her brother created in her memory: <http://rememberingamy.com/index.html>

John Gervais broke his ankle in two places when he fell. Pray for him and Kelly and their boys.

Dave Kopplin will have heart surgery in Plano. On Thursday, August 24.

Hope Mustakim asks for prayers and support for her friend from Kosovo and her family. Here's a link, so you can read more about their needs: <https://www.youcaring.com/dp-898671>

On Monday night a group from all over Waco met at Willow Grove Baptist Church, a predominately African-American congregation in Speepleville to help clean up the vandalism the church suffered last week. As a church we stand against racism, white supremacy, bigotry, and violence. We believe that the presence of Lake Shore members of all ages was a sign of support to Willow Grove and the strong working hands of some members of our group made a huge difference in community-building. As Kyndall said in the email to the church on Monday, "Love will prevail."

Voting will be done by donation ($1 equals 1 vote), and we will also be selling homemade, donated concessions (let me know if you'd like to donate!).
